

2017 Objectives

- modernisation and extension of plant
- further training and continuing education of staff
- further specialisation of services offered concerning hazardous substance storage
- providing support to next generation staff
- increasing the company's social commitment, extended measures in environmental protection